POP QUIZ! PLAY TO WIN!

Question: The longer you wait to start collecting retirement benefits after you become eligible at age 62, the higher the amount you will receive. For each month you delay up to age 70 (when you can claim your maximum benefit), your monthly payment goes up. If you can wait until 70, your benefit will be about [blank] bigger than if you had claimed at 62.

- A. 77%
- B. 83%
- C. 51%
- D. 97%
- E. None of the above
