J. Braegelmann and C. Jones Newly Elected to BOD

Meet Our Newly-Elected Board of Directors Members
 James "Jim" Braegelmann	 Clifton Jones
JIM retired from the Omaha World Herald after 28 years of service, with his last position being as an Advertising and Marketing Account Executive. He graduated from St. Cloud Technical College with an Advertising and Marketing degree. Prior to joining the Omaha FCU Board of Directors, Jim served on the Board of Directors at the Omaha World Herald Credit Union for four years.	CLIFTON retired from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) after 33 years of service. As HUD's State Director, Clifton had oversight for $500+ million in Nebraska alone. He served four years in the U.S. Airforce. He currently serves on Offutt Air Force Base's Veterans Advisory Council. He graduated from Bellevue University with a Master's degree in Business Administration. He has been a member of Omaha FCU since 2011.

One of the most important differences between credit unions and other institutions is the Board of Directors, elected by the membership at our Annual Meeting, which was held Tuesday, June 17, 2026, at the Main Branch. ▶

POP QUIZ! PLAY TO WIN!

Question: A dollar of everyday goods in 1957 needs to be [blank] today just to break even. Flip it around: a dollar in 2026 -- in everyday goods terms -- only stretches as far as [blank] did in 1957.

- A. $11.79 / 8.5¢
- B. $13.89 / 14¢
- C. $8.98 / 4.7¢
- D. $13.33 / 27¢
- E. None of the above

Submit your answer for a chance to win a $20 bonus gift card! ▶

Last Issue's Question: Thanks to OFCU's Debit Card Round-Up Savings Program, when you make an eligible debit card purchase from your checking account, the transaction amount is rounded up to the nearest whole [blank]. That rounded-up amount is then transferred to your designated [blank] account on a per-transaction basis. For example: a $10.31 purchase rounds up to [blank]. Transactions that are whole dollar will receive a [blank] round up. Answer: B. (Dollar / savings / $11.00 / $1.00)
